School Guidelines and Regulations

Our mission is to teach our Muslim youth Arabic, Quran, Islamic Knowledge and Values to build a strong foundation of their faith to empower them to become confident Muslims, responsible Muslims, and committed Muslim citizens living in the West, to help them make Islam as a way of life to face everyday challenges.

1. Children must arrive to the Masjid 10 minutes before the class starts, and must be picked up within 10 minutes after the class is finished so the following class can start on time, unless told otherwise by the Imam or the teacher. Tardiness at the time of arrival and leaving the school should be avoided.
2. If the child is absent, it's the parent's responsibility to work with the child on the material he or she missed
3. After the parents drop their children, they must leave the Masjid, they can wait outside if they so choose.
4. No other activities shall take place inside the Masjid while the classes are in session.
5. No cell phones will be allowed while the classes are in progress, and if child must have cell phone it will be given to the teacher and will be returned after the class is over.
6. Only water will be allowed in the Masjid No other drinks or food.
7. The school is not a daycare center, so please talk to your children to show proper school behavior.
8. The fees must be paid on the 1st, and NO later than the 10th of the month.
9. No refunds for missed classes
10. Parents involvement in their children education is very important, parents are asked to Please follow up with your children on the lessons that were taken so they will not be forgotten by the following week, and if homework is assigned parents must ensure that its completed. The best practice for the homework is to be completed the same day after the school.
11. Members of the education committee are: Imam Abdou Elhelali, Brother Lahcen, and the teachers, with oversight of Board Of Directors.
12. We will seriously consider all suggestions, please use the suggestions box or contact the Imam.
13. The education committee reserve right to change or add to the school guidelines and regulation without notice. Any changes will be communicated to the parents as soon as possible.

We Need Dedicated Volunteer Teachers, if you interested please let the Imam know.
